

Administration costs for non-electronic design applications

The Director General of BOIP has, in accordance with Rules 3.14 and 5.2 (3) of the Implementing Regulations, decided that as from May 17, 2016, administration costs amounting to 15%, rounded downward in whole euros, will be charged for Benelux design applications that are filed through non-electronic ("paper") means. This results in the following amounts:

	Electronic	Paper
Single design
Application	€ 108	€ 124
Publication per representation	€ 10	€ 11
Publication of characteristic features	€ 40	€ 46
Deferment of publication	€ 39	€ 44
Multiple design
Application first design	€ 108	€ 124
2nd till 10th design, per design	€ 54	€ 62
11th till 20th design, per design	€ 27	€ 31
21st till 50th design, per design	€ 22	€ 25
Publication per representation	€ 10	€ 11
Publication of characteristic features	€ 40	€ 46
Deferment of publication	€ 39	€ 44

Applications that are made either with the software (BOIP online filing) available for that purpose on BOIP's website (www.boip.int) .

All other modes of transmission (such as by post or fax) will be considered as paper filing, for which administration costs are due. It is not possible to file a design application by e-mail or via the contact form on BOIP's website.

The charge for administration costs will be due to non-electronic applications received by BOIP as from May 17, 2016.